ANNUAL RATEPAYERS' MEETING DISCLOSES GOOD STANDING

The annual joint meeting of the ratepayers of Blairmore school district 628 and the Town of Blairmore was held at the central school house on Friday night last, and was attended by about one hundred ratepayers, the greatest interest manifested since the good old days of the Lyons' regime.

Both sessions were presided over by W. H. Chappell, former chairman of the school board, while A. J. Kelly, secretary-treasurer, acted as secretary.

Owing to the official auditor not having visited Blairmore since the end of the year, the expected financial statement and auditor's report for the year 1932 was not presented, but upon motion, this joint meeting of ratepayers would adjourn until the Monday following publication in The Blairmore Enterprise of such statements.

His Worship Mayor J. H. Farmer made an exhaustive report of his services to the town, not only for the past two years, but covering the five years under his leadership. He concluded by stating that he appreciated the assistance at all times rendered him by the council and officials of the town, as well as citizens in general, but felt that the time had come when he should relinquish such reins of office to some worthy successor.
Therefore, he would not be a candidate for re-election. Under his supervision, the affairs of the town had been administered in a faithful manner, and the auditor's report, when presented, will disclose a fact that probably cannot be enjoyed by any town of its size in the Dominion of Canada—that at December 31, 1932, the town and school district will be clear of all debt and obligations.

Heads of various committees reported for their departments, all showing creditable results.

Members of the School Board reported as to progress made and Chairman Pinkney stated that it was not the intention of the board to cut salaries, if such could be avoided. All members present expressed themselves in favor of the idea of free school supplies.

Vacancies were occurring on both the Council and School Board, and the hope was expressed that the ratepayers, in choosing material for mayor, council and board, would take into consideration the splendid services resolutely rendered by those whose terms of office were expiring.

At the close of the meeting a motion was made and seconded and supported strongly by Messrs. S. G. Ban-nan and Robert Oakes, expressing thanks of the ratepayers to His Worship the Mayor for the good services rendered during the past five years, and regret that he did not see fit to again accept nomination.

The meeting adjourned till the Monday evening following publication of the financial statements.

BASKETBALL

On Saturday night the Mountain View team will clash with the Columbia Club Cyclones in the Columbia hall. The Cyclones are favorites in the provincial playdowns and this game will be a test of their strength against Southern Alberta teams.
Mountain View recently defeated Stirling, who last year defeated the C.N.F. champs.

The game will be preceded by a girls' game and followed by a jittery dance.

MacLeod's per capita indebtedness, as at December 31st last, was $284.20.

Newfoundland is reported importing flour from England, made from Canadian wheat.

ELKS INSTALL OFFICERS

At their regular meeting held on Tuesday night, Blairmore Lodge No.
15, B.P.O.E., installed their 1933 slate of officers. D.D.G.E.R., J. H. Boyle, of Granum, assisted by L. M. Kelly, of P.E.R., of Granum Lodge, carried out the ceremony, installing the officers as follows:

Exalted Ruler, J. R. McLeod; L.P.E.
R. H. O. Westrup; leading knight, A.
Vojprava; loyal knight, J. V. Mc-Dougall; instructing knight, E. M. New-ble; treasurer, W. A. Becker; secretary, J. A. Kerr; squire, R. Gray; chaplain, J. E. Gillis; inner guard, L.
E. Warner; Tyler, M. Sartoris, and C.
Sartoris and M. Ray, who with E. A.
Harper comprise the board of trustees.

After the session, a very pleasant social hour was spent with B.O. Mc-Farlan catering to the inner man. The district deputy, employed for a while at the local depot, some twenty years ago, was accompanied by two carnals of Granum members, and a happy time was had renewing old acquaintances during the evening.

UNITED CHURCH ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Blairmore United church took place in the church auditorium, following the regular service on Sunday evening last, when reports of all departments of the church were presented, most of which displayed very creditable financial standing.

Mr. Roland Pinkney was added to the personnel of the church board.

The meeting was presided over by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Larke, while Mr. S. McDowell acted as secretary.

DEATH OF OLD TIME RESIDENT

Mrs. Wiley Godfrey received a letter from Mrs. LeGal, who for many years lived on the ranch occupied by the Fleming family, west of C. leman.
They lived there for 27 years, leaving in 1929 for New Westminster. Mrs.
LeGal states that her husband was seized with a paralytic stroke on New Year's morning, and was taken to St.
Mary's hospital, where he died two days later, in his 81st year. Ten years ago, while living here, he took a stroke and since then Mrs. LeGal had faithfully cared for him, as he was unable to get around. Many old friends will remember Mrs. LeGal and the faithful way in which she carried on under extreme difficulties caused by her husband being an invalid.—Columbus Journal.

K. of C. HEAD TO VISIT ALBERTA

Hon. Martin H. Carmody, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, will pay an official visit to Alberta and address a monster open meeting in the main dining room of the Palliser Hotel, Calgary, on Thursday, February 9th, at 8:30 in the evening. Previously, he will broadcast from the studio of CFCN between 6:15 and 6:30 p.m., and at 6:30 will be tendered a dinner in the Palliser by the Knight of Columbus of Alberta. Both functions will be presided over by J.
E. Gillis, Blairmore, State Deputy for Alberta, and Mayor Davidson will extend to Mr. Carmody a welcome to Calgary.

CONSTANCE BENNETT GOT BIG THRILL WRECKING CAR

Constance Bennett, who plays the part of a gay society girl in "Two Against the World," a Warner Bros. production which is coming to the Orpheum theatre, starting Monday next,
had a lot of fun smashing an automobile during the taking of the picture. To carry out a sequence in the story, she drives her Packard into a Chevrolet. It is the first wreck in which she has ever had a part and she declared it gave her a real thrill.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

The Earl of Chesterfield, former lord steward of his majesty's household and the 10th-earl of that name, is dead in his 79th year.

The monthly average of employment in Canada throughout the year 1932 was 801,356 employees, according to a voluminous report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Department of national defence proposes as a measure of unemployment relief to construct an additional landing field at Camp Borden in the near future.

A new organization to be known as the Canadian Society for Literature and the Arts, was brought into being at a well-attended meeting of active and influential Toronto citizens. The aggregate value of all field crops in 1932 is estimated at $418,686,900, as compared with $432,235,400 in 1931, said a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Entries from Alberta at the World Grain Congress in Regina next summer are expected to reach 200 and approximately half that number have already been received.

Ernest William Benson, before his retirement one of the largest lumber exporters in Canada and owner of large timber tracts throughout northern Quebec and Newfoundland, is dead at Montreal, aged 86.

A non-stop flight from Moscow to Angora, a distance of more than 1,000 miles involving a crossing of the Black Sea, is planned by the Soviet civil aviation society, Osoaviakhim, for 1933.

The American Chamber of Commerce in London, through Francis E. Powell, its president, announced its advocacy of a plan to hold the projected world economic conference at Washington.

Served Queen Alexandra

Late Resident Of Calgary Was Once Lady-In-Waiting

Honorable Mabel Vesey-Fitzgerald, former lady-in-waiting to Queen Alexandra, is dead. She was known in Calgary as Mrs. Fitzhardinge Rose, proprietor of a small lending library and benefactress to the poor.

Brought up in the grandeur of King Edward's Court, and guided by her mother's parents, Lord and Lady Cecil Gordon, her life in Alberta was a strong contrast to the brilliant one she once knew.

Following her marriage to George Fitzhardinge Rose, she settled with her husband on a ranch at Pine Lake, north of Calgary, 22 years ago, later coming to the city. For a number of years she operated her little library until illness forced her to retire.

An Unusual Record

Sisters In Nebraska Have Lived Together Forty-Eight Years

Two sisters whose combined ages total 187 years live together at Holdrege, Neb. They claim to be one of the oldest sister combinations in the state.

Miss Anna Leibrant is 97 years old and Mrs. Hanna Lindevall, her sister, is past 90 years of age.

The two have lived together during the past 48 years. They do their own house work and care for a large garden and lawn.

Deficits of French railways in the last three years totalled nearly $360,000,000.

England had less sunshine last year than in any 12 months since 1889.

Ultra-Rapid Planes

Picard Foresees Few Hours Journey From America To Europe
Prof. Auguste Picard, explorer of the stratosphere, predicts that travelers not many years hence will cross the Atlantic in "stratospheres" with less risk than in crossing a large modern city in an automobile.

He gave an imaginary description before the National Geographic Society at Washington of a flight in such a machine, several of which he said already were being built in Europe.

"Visualize a tired seahorse here in Washington," he said, "sitting at his breakfast table trying to conceive of some new law he can pass, when a friend telephones from Paris asking him to drop in for luncheon six hours later. He pushes away his grapefruit and rushes to the stratosphere, and enters a stratosphere."

"The stratosphere is the inevitable super-highway for future intercontinental transport."

Of Interest To Poultrymen

Saskatchewan Poultry Division Issues Third Annual Catalogue

The catalogue contains a list of all prominent breeders in Saskatchewan together with details respecting the products which they have for sale. Articles of interest to poultrymen generally, written by experts in their field, are also included together with a brief summary of the provincial and federal services which are offered for the assistance of the industry.

A Portable Rail-Van

Eliminates Necessity Of Re-Loading Goods For Shipment

A new type of mobile container, named the "rail-van," designed for co-ordination of railroad and truck service in long-distance hauling of household goods and adaptable for carrying general freight, was demonstrated at New York at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad's tracks.

The rail-van is a detachable truck-body mounted on roll-off casters, which can be removed, when fully packed to a capacity of 7,000 pounds, from the truck platform directly to a flat railroad car. On arrival at its destination, the rail-van is easily pushed to another truck-platform for delivery to the door of the consignee.

The new van eliminates the necessity of unpacking the goods from the delivery truck on departure and of manual reloading of the freight from the railroad car to a moving van on arrival. This, it was declared by Henry A. Reimers, president of Rail-Vans, Inc., of Chicago, will materially lower the cost of shipping of freight, over distances above 200 miles, and thus will enable the railroads to meet the competition now being offered them by motor buses.

Needy Veteran Settlers

Says Soldier Settlement Policy Has Not Been Changed

The policy of the soldier settlement branch, adopted more than a year ago, to the effect that no settler under the act will be disturbed if he is making a sincere effort to establish himself and is unable to meet payments because of circumstances beyond his control, has not been altered. This was the statement of department officials whose attention had been drawn to a "despatch" from Prince Albert, Sask., which stated the local branch of the Canadian Legion was about to appeal to the Dominion Government on behalf of some needy veteran settlers.

Gerald Larkin Says Remove Trade Barriers At Salada Annual Meeting

Newspaper Advertising Still Carries On Of Salada Faculty

Mr. Gerald R. Larkin, President of Salada Tea Company, in addressing the Annual Meeting of the Staff said: "Meetings such as this at the end of a good year are always a source of pleasure to everyone of us. When general conditions are bad, and even our own business has, in a measure, reached these conditions, we sometimes find the effort to bear ourselves cheerfully more than a little difficult. Any such feeling must be fought against and defeated by everyone of us, if we are going to make the following year a success. By cheerfulness I do not mean any foolish measure of optimism, although under present conditions I need hardly warn any of you against that, but I do mean a reasonable faith in the future based on the past history of this country, and of the world."

There is undoubtedly a measure of defeatist propaganda being carried on by the press and so each of us, in the last month or two, that every country in the world, including Canada and the United States, is headed for revolution; that things are getting steadily worse every day. This talk comes not as one might suppose, from extreme socialists or communists, but rather from people who are still very moderately comfortable in their circumstances but who, not having enough to do, allow themselves to absorb all the depressing features of the present day conditions and so reach a point where their judgment is entirely warped. We are all meeting people who use this and must do our part to combat their ideas.

As I see it, what the world needs is greater understanding between its component parts; greater appreciation of each other's different nationalism and internationalism. It was exactly those features which won the war. There was real and sincere co-operation between the Allied and Associated Powers. Unfortunately, immediately after the war, bad co-operation concluded a disastrous peace; a peace that bred distrust, not only between the victors and the defeated, but also among the victorious nations themselves. Extreme nationalism supplanted what at least had been form of partial internationalism, and all countries succumbed to it. Tariff walls were— and still are being built higher and higher until international trade has to all intents and purposes ceased to exist. What this country needs, what the United States needs, what the world needs is a breaking down of the greater part of those barriers if we are to return to our normal standard of living. You are probably already convinced of this; if so, work for it. It is sure to come just as quick as it can be brought about the more quickly the pessimists will be discarded, and the more quickly reasonable optimism will be justified.

Your influence is great; you are in constant touch with the grocer, who, in turn, is in touch with every individual in his community; you are also meeting other salesmen who reach other trades. Do your share, and gradually the truth will spread. Politicians can only act if they feel they have the majority of the public behind them, and it is vital to the welfare of the world, to the welfare of Canada and to the welfare of the Company that they should in 1933 act liberally, abandon narrow nationalism and be brought to see that only a wider internationalism can rescue us from the pit we have dugged for ourselves.

Mr. Macdonough, Advertising Manager, mentioned that newspapers, which form the backbone of their advertising, are being read just as extensively as ever by SALADA.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FEBRUARY 5

JESUS CHOOSES THE TWELVE

Golden Text: "I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit."—John 15:16.

Lesson: Mark 3:35-38.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:1-11.

Explanations and Comments

The Thronging Multitudes, verses 7-12. Although Jesus' disciples and his "chosen ones" were "not" chosen as to how they could get rid of Him, we see that Jesus last week Jesus' popularity among the people grew by leaps and bounds. Stories of his miraculous cures spread rapidly. Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea, but a miracle-mad crowd pursued him, intent on being cured by Him or on seeing the wonderful cures of others. From north, south, east and west they came; from Galilee and Judaea and Idumaea, from Perea beyond the Jordan and Tyre and Sidon in the northwest, Idumaea south of Judea is the Edom of the Testament, the land where Esau and his descendants dwelt.

Jesus took great precaution of directing His disciples to have a small boat in readiness so as to make his escape therein if necessary. He was in actual danger of being crushed by the importunate crowd. People suffering from plagues tried to touch Him, believing that the touch would cure them; see Mark 6:56. The demon-possessed fell down in homage before Him, saying, "Thou art the Son of God," and Jesus charged them not to make Him known, for "neither was this time, nor were these the disciples," as Bengel says. Popular enthusiasm might lead to an outbreak and was dangerous to His cause.

"The summary shows us clearly that a new phase in the ministry of Jesus had begun; the synagogue is forsaken and the open places and the seashore are sought. Jesus, in a word, begins an open-air ministry. One is reminded of the way in which the great pioneers of the modern evangelical movement were forced out of the churches of their day, and of how in consequence that great open-air crusade was begun which had such far-reaching results in the life of England and America."—Abingdon Bible Commentary.

The Chosen Twelve, verses 13-18. After spending the night in prayer on the hills west of Capernaum overlooking the lake (Luke 6:12), from the inner circle of His followers Jesus chose twelve men to be a group of special disciples. The number twelve naturally suggests a correspondence with the twelve tribes of Israel. "It was a subtle way of suggesting to the Jews," a commentator thinks, "that He was founding a new theocracy—the newer and nobler theocracy that was to replace the old." Jesus needed helpers. He needed them for His own sake and for the world's sake. He called The Twelve to be with Him, to be His friends, and to be trained by Him, to understand Him and His message, and to carry on His work after He was gone. He commissioned them to preach, to proclaim the glad news of the Kingdom, and to cast out demons.

Advantage Of Newspaper As Advertising Medium, Again Stressed

Denton Massey of Toronto has given fresh expression to a truth that is generally known by those familiar with such things. Newspapers, Mr. Massey tells University of Western Ontario students, are "head and shoulders above any other advertising medium." Radio, advertising is good, Mr. Massey explains, but it is essentially entertainment. On the other hand, the results of newspaper advertising are known. Its appeal is not as a mere diversion, but the advertisers know the type of subscribers they reach through the columns of the newspapers.

No one who has devoted the slightest thought to a study of advertising comparisons can doubt the correctness of Mr. Massey's statement. There are many forms of advertising, but none can begin to approach that of the newspaper. It reaches the largest audience and at the lowest cost.—Border Cities Star.

New "Pop" Chemical Helps Patients To Rally Quickly

With cortin, the magical "pop" chemical produced by two glands in the body, surgeons in the near future may be able to save the lives of most patients who die from a shock of severe operations or accidents.

Full details of experiments indicating cortin will rally patients from the very threshold of death due to surgical or wound shocks is contained in a recent issue of Science.

It is expected surgeons will at once begin using cortin on shocked patients in an effort to corroborate the findings of the Princeton scientists.

Due to improved operating efficiency the amount of grain wasted in transit from Western Canada to Montreal has decreased from an average of 10 bushels to every 100,000 (transit) for the past three years preceding 1929 to less than four bushels 100,000 transported in 1932, says the national revenue department review.

CHAPTER V.—Continued.

Alan swore to wield this sword in his hand.

By mid-afternoon of that interminable day they came to the first straggling trees at the Thial-Azzah edge. At deep twilight they reached the Alooka Forks and the anchored launch.

Pedeneult had just returned from his useless trip up the south branch. In a few words he understood all that had happened. With one glance at his spent and staggering partners, he took their heavy burden from their shoulders.

Alan flung himself down beside Bill, driven to the limit of human endurance. His last waking thought was the grim satisfaction of knowing that he held a sword over his guilty arrogant officer and could bring him to account at last.

In his cabin inspector Haskell sat behind his desk, waiting for Alan Baker to come in and report. He was thinking, thinking hard; and for all his self-control his nerves were jumping.

Over in a corner Whipple sat at the table, pretending to write but in reality waiting there, as Haskell had bidden him. Something cold had gripped Haskell half an hour ago when he saw the patrol returning without the six bandits and with Constable Youngs desperately wounded. He knew the details of that patrol already; Whipple had come up and privately told him. How the bandits had headed for the Thial-Azzah, as Baker had warned them, and had run those six to earth and cornered them. How Pedeneult and the other two constables had been a hundred and forty miles away during that crucial hour.

As he knew, this crime was the most spectacular in years along the Three Rivers. The defeat administered to the police was the most stinging in a decade. This incident would have reverberations at headquarters. Superintendent Williamson would investigate. The very first question of that veteran old officer would be:

"Why in h—l did you order Baker to divide that patrol? Splitting up his detail that way—didn't you realize that neither party would be able to handle those criminals?"

Not defending himself, Haskell knew he was caught. He knew he had made a capital mistake in a force where a man's first mistake is usually his last. In these thirty minutes all his prospects of promotion in service, of smashing Alan Baker, of swinging Elizabeth Spaulding to himself, had come tumbling down like a house of cards, and he was thoroughly frightened.

It would spell ruin to his career if the facts of the patrol became known. The blame of this shameful defeat lay squarely at his door. Baker surely realized that; Baker surely was going to use that word against him. It was war now, open and avowed war between them.

Step by step, logic led him to the one and only recourse he had. If Williamson ever found out he had ordered that patrol split, he was sunk. Therefore Williamson must not find out. There was a way to keep him from knowing the facts.

Haskell tried to still his conscience by thinking that Baker had wanted the patrol to fail. If that was so, then this measure was exactly what the sergeant had been coming to him. He ought to be smashed, and smashed hard. . . . You've got to fight fire with fire. . . .

Still in his muddled and torn uniform, Alan came down the slope toward Haskell's cabin, intending to bludgeon some hard and fast terms out of the guilty inspector or shoot a complaint over his head to Superintendent Williamson. If Haskell did not give in to his demands, he meant to send a half-breed runner to the Royal Signal Corps station at Resolution and flash a message to the division commander that would start an avalanche.

Over at Mrs. Drummond's house where Joyce had gone, candles were gleaming in the windows. Across at Father Claverly's tiny hospital, Larry Youngs lay fighting for his life. Up the slope at barracks Dave MacMillan was locked in the police "butterfly" charged with being accomplice to robbery and murder.

Joyce had reported secretly: "Alan, I talked with him. He isn't guilty! He never heard a whisper about these bandits, till I told him. He couldn't have deceived me!"

That same impression had been Alan's. "He couldn't have deceived me." There was something behind that pack of furs which hadn't come to light yet and which would explain those denouncing circumstances.

It was his conviction that Dave MacMillan was not guilty at all.

He meant to put up a fight for Dave. It was easy to resolve that, but the actual job was the hardest thing he had attempted in his whole life.

The only way under heaven of clearing Dave's name was to capture the guilty man and either bring a confession out of them or hold out king's evidence as a lure and get them started talking against each other.

Which way would they try to escape? They'd go east when they left the Thial-Azzah. They'd go across the great Barrens to Hudson's Bay and try to pick up passage on a fishing smack, or go east and south toward The Pas in Manitoba. There was only one route leading east out of the Thial-Azzah, and they'd have to take it. It was an old Timineh trade route, the Inconnu River.

Alan meant to lead a patrol to the Inconnu.

As he strode into the cabin, he saw Haskell waiting for him, coolly smoking a cigarette. It seemed to Alan that the man actually did not realize that his ignorant orders had wrecked the patrol and that the whole blame and shame of it lay at his door.

When he finished his report, Haskell made no comment. Wondering at his cool air, Alan was silent a few moments. He could not understand the man's nonchalance. This was war between them; each knew it; and yet Haskell showed no fear, no concern, no conciliatory spirit whatsoever.

Keeping back his heavy weapon, Alan took up his defense of Joyce's father:

"About Dave MacMillan. My opinion is, he's entirely innocent. There's no call to send him outside to Edmonton. A travelling court is coming down the Three Rivers in August, and his case can wait for that. He can be kept here, or released on bail. Drummond will put up bail; I'll be personally responsible for him. There's another reason; he's got some good friends among the Dogrib; if he's released he'll get busy and stir them up to help hunt these bandits."

Haskell interrupted. "What was he doing last week? Where was he? Can he put up any alibi?"

"He was in the Candle-ice Lake country, trying to locate Little Otter's band. He'd been away all winter, and they owed him their spring pet; try; but they'd sneaked away, and taken their peltry in to the L. & H. He saw no one; he has no alibi."

"That trader won't be released," Haskell said flatly. "I'll decide whether to keep him here or send him outside to Edmonton."

Dismaying Dave MacMillan's plight with a curt gesture, he demanded: "What made you leave Constable Burgon there at the leading post, short-handed as we are?"

"To watch after the furs and trade goods."

"That's MacMillan's lookout. I'll have to instruct Pedeneult to get Burgon tomorrow."

"But Miss Joyce expects to return there. She has good reasons. What protection do you intend to give her?"

"If she insists on returning, I don't feel any responsibility. This isn't an orphanage; it's a Mounted Police post."

Alan entered that remark in his account against the inspector. Haskell's callous attitude toward a defenseless, grief-stricken girl seemed to him an index to the man's real manhood.

Still keeping his sword hidden from Haskell, he broached the matter of that patrol to the Inconnu. As he sketched his plan briefly, he saw that Haskell, interested to him coldly, was not even listening. An uneasiness came over him. What was Haskell thinking? Didn't the man realize he had made a fatal mistake?

Alan summed up his plan: "In three weeks I want to have a patrol lying low on the Inconnu. I'll take Hardcock and Pedeneult, and enlist three good 'breds as special constables."

Haskell stopped him. "I'm not interested in your plan, sergeant. You're merely making a long guess about what they'd do. It sounds thin."

"About as thin as my guess that they'd take the north branch into the Thial-Azzah." Alan flung back at him. "I know this country. Now, get this straight inspector: I'm going to take that trip. I didn't come in here to ask your permission. You've wrecked one patrol. If Superintendent Williamson hears about that, you won't have a chance to wreck any more. You'll keep your hands off this Inconnu trip, or Williamson is going to hear 4—4 quick!"

The threat daunted Haskell not at all. He seemed to have heard. With that faint sardonic smile on his face, he intoned coldly:

"Besides the slimness of your plan, sergeant, there's another absurdity about it. You just came back from a patrol that started out with every chance in the world of succeeding. You yourself admit you met the bandits and even had them cornered. But by your weak vacillating fight you allowed them to escape."

"What's that?" Alan cut in. "Good Lord!" His memory whipped back to Bill and himself bellying up behind the muskrat house, and to Larry Youngs, coming out against six men on open water.

"You failed dismally," Haskell proceeded, in knife-edge voice. "You probably wanted to fail, so you could try to hang something onto that, you criminals escaped clean, and one of your men was badly shot. After such a performance, don't you think it's a bit ridiculous of you to stand there and badly ask me to let you lead a thousand-mile, all-summer patrol with five men? Instead . . . Well, you've been in the Mounted long enough to know what the consequences are of a failure like yours."

Alan stood dazed. Haskell was actually blaming that disaster upon him! Didn't the man still fail to realize that the patrol had been wrecked by his own crazy orders?

New Motor Fuel

Using Common Charcoal Or Coke To Drive Engines

Science is even revolutionizing the field up use for locomotion.

Mr. N. C. Jones, of London, England, claims to have invented a means of using common charcoal or coke as the basis of a fuel for motor vehicles, which will supply power at a coal equivalent to petrol, at 50 a gallon.

His apparatus, consisting of two units—a gas producer, and a cleaner and filter. In operation, the passage of air and water vapor through an incandescent mass of charcoal creates a gas which, when passed into the cylinder and mixed with air, forms an explosive mixture. The apparatus, it is said, can be attached to any commercial vehicle, and also to stationary heavy oil plants.

A company is now launching this process on a commercial basis in Britain. It is stated that, during the course of a year, they are hoping to produce a more compact apparatus for the use of private cars.

Adjust Freight Rates

Domestic Rates On Feed Grain Westward May Be Reduced

Reports are prevalent that the domestic freight rates on feed grain westward are to be reduced. The decrease will be of benefit to Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, and to a lesser extent to Manitoba.

Domestic freight rates are higher than export rates. The schedules under consideration the difference between these two tariffs is likely to be cut from 40 to 50 per cent.

The action under consideration would enable the prairie farmers to find a wider market for their No. 6 grain. The western farmers have a large stock of this feed grain on hand.

Poultry and chicken farmers of British Columbia would get cheaper feed grain as a consequence. A large market exists in the coast province for this commodity.

Indications are under review with the railways of an early decision in view of reduction of domestic freight rates on feed grain westbound.

HERITAGE

We cannot know them all, These ancestors of ours Who left us, through the long, slow years.

Such strangely varied dreams One gave me wistful drows, And love of wind-tossed foam, Another gave a heart that clings To tranquil ways and home.

One gave me truth and trust, One gave me pride and fire, The gift of one was faith enough To grasp my heart's desire.

Women with laughing lips And men who fought and dreamed, So through my veins the changeful tide Of diverse lives has streamed.

And sometimes I must ask, As life so strangely runs, How much of this myself is I, How much those, other ones?

New Bow For Violin

German Fiddler Finds Silver Wires Give Good Tone

For centuries past the violin bow has been made of horsehair. It is perhaps a lucky thing that, just as the horse is disappearing, a German fiddler has invented a bow string with silver wires. These wires are of about the same thickness as horsehair, and as they are slightly roughened on the surface they vibrate the strings perfectly without the use of resin. The tone, it is claimed, is far better than is given by the ordinary bow. It is not commercially available at this time.

Tame Deer Follows Hunters

Camp Pet Identified By Piece Of Red Cloth

The mystery of a deer with a bell around its neck, which followed hunters about the woods near Ashland, Wisconsin, has been explained. Claude Manley and E. V. Needham reported that they were trailed by the bell doer recently while deer hunting in the vicinity of Lake Namakagon. Wisconsin's law protects the doe.

Paul Binsfeld identified the doe as the apparently motherless fawn which woodmen found wandering near their camp three or four years ago, and which they raised on a bottle.

The doe refused to leave the neighborhood when it became full grown, and returns regularly for meals, Binsfeld explained. Often it will trail cooks' helpers carrying food to woodmen working too far from camp to return for meals, he said.

A piece of red cloth is attached to the deer to prevent hunters from killing the camp pet, and during the open hunting season its protectors strap a ball around its neck as a further precaution, Binsfeld said.

Every duty involves the whole principle of obedience. And little duties make the will dutiful and prompt to obey. Little obediences lead into great. The daily round of duty is full of probation and of discipline; it trains the heart, will, and conscience. We need not be prophets or apostles, and the commonest life may be full of perfection. The duties of home are a discipline for the ministries of heaven.—H. E. Manning.

Russians Discontented

As Disatisfied As Under Czar Says

The Russian masses are as dissatisfied today as they were under the rule of the czars, Major F. Yeats-Brown, British author and sportsman, said while visiting Milwaukee on a lecture tour.

"Thoughts of revolution run through the minds of the Russian masses today," he declared. "They are discontented with their lot under the Soviet regime and tired of the starvation ration upon which they are forced to subsist because of the shortage of food."

The author of "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer" and "Bloody Years" recently returned from a visit to Russia. He said only the army there is well fed, adding that "the Soviet government sees to it that because a well conditioned man can save off revolution."

The Englishman laughed. "Pardon me, sir," he said, "you mean 'feet,' do you not?"

"Ah," said the Frenchman, greatly excited, "so you climbed it more than once, eh?"

These prominent stars—Maurice Chevalier, S. Ivis S. CHOIR ENTERTAINED

On January the 25th, the choir members of the United church, together with their husbands and wives, were entertained by the Ladies Aid to a turkey banquet. The tables were tastefully decorated with daffodils and pussy willows, the latter being gathered from the hills by the active committee. Very pretty cantatas also formed part of the decoration.

The blessing was asked by Rev. A. E. Larke, followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. F. M. Pinkney. When everyone had done justice to a very delicious supper, Rev. Mr. Larke, on behalf of his congregation, expressed sincere gratitude to the choir for the good work they were doing in giving such splendid assistance at his services. Mrs. Hannan, choir leader, responded, thanking the members who had helped to make the Christmas cantata a success, and expressed the hope of being able to render another cantata at Easter.

A vote of thanks was especially accorded Miss Chappel, whose untiring efforts as organist are greatly appreciated.

The entertainment committee had been busy preparing a contest, in which all guests took part, the prizes going to Mrs. Harper and Ray, Larke. After a few games and community singing, the party was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

IN HONOR OF G. G.

A very enjoyable reception was given on Monday evening, Jan. 29th, in honor of Mr. G. G. Coote, M.P., and Mrs. Coote, under the patronage of the Nanton U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. Over 50 people were present in the Elks' hall to hear Mr. Coote's address, "The Economic Crisis and the Way Out." Mr. Coote dealt most thoroughly with the depression, its problems and suggested remedies. His audience listened with keenest interest and a splendid spirit prevailed throughout the meeting. At the conclusion of Mr. Coote's address there was a quartette by Mrs. Pinder, Miss Daly, Mr. Donnelly and Mr. Skinner, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. There was also community singing led by Mrs. Walker with Mrs. A. S. Shaw at the piano.

The guests were then invited to the dining room where they were served with a very lavish lunch. There was an abundance for all and the ladies deserve great credit for handling such a large gathering so quickly and efficiently.

The balance of the evening was given to dancing. The entire evening was considered a great success and so large a gathering was felt to be a great compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Coote on the eve of their departure for Ottawa—Nanton News.

CORRESPONDENCE

Blairmore, Alta., Jan. 27, 1933.

To the Editor, The Enterprise.

Sir: I trust that you will print this reply to Lily Rowe, whose letter appeared in last week's issue of your paper.

To Mrs. Lily Rowe: you regard me as an "unsophisticated piece of insignificance." I would like to return my opinion of you, but I am sorry to say that there is no word in the English language capable of expressing my contempt of you and your kind. As to your remark of my education, perhaps Dr. Stewart could enlighten you on the reason why I discontinued my studies, which will be resumed in the near future. However, I am glad to see that you lowered yourself to such an attack. It shows that you lack the decency with which we British are credited, and it shows to what depths you will sink to defend your filthy traitors' organization. Thank goodness our organization is sufficient in principle not to have to resort to such an issue.

What right have you to talk of the British principle? Where was your husband when the bugle sounded? No doubt he gave a good reason for not going, or he couldn't have stayed back. I have my own opinion of the men who showed the white feather in 1914 and then dare to accuse a returned man of not being true to his country. The deed is greater than the word.

You speak of our people as strangers in this country. Are you so ignorant that you are not aware that it was the "foreigner" who made this country? Should these people whose ancestors planted the first crops and built the first railway be forced to starve? Should their children be made to freeze and get killed riding freights as a result of unemployment? Is it just that they who produced good hungry, when there is decided over-production?

Your question concerning the farmers has not been raised by me. Yet I will say in reply that I realize the deplorable condition of the farmers, and know that the Alberta farmers must have been in desperate circumstances before they would march to Edmonton. I think that the script question has nothing to do with this organizational argument, though I will say that any man will prefer cash money, to the indignity of script, which is not charity.

When you say that I ever professed to kick God out of the country, I say that you are a liar. I defended Miss Bowe's statement, for she said clearly that the church still existed in Russia. If you cannot enter the field of a fair argument without resorting to contemptible falsehoods and petty slander, you should not be so quick in bringing up statements which you find it necessary to support with such things.

Of course you are desperate. What hope have you got except of catering to the Company? Your husband and the rest are traitors of the lowest type. Do you remember May 1931 when the M.W.U. of C. fought to keep your husband and other traitors from being discharged? What an appreciation we have been shown. However, anything that can be bought can be sold. You accepted aid from the bosses in the strike. I hope they realize that. Your side is hopeless in their weakness. You cannot fight any wrong done you because the operators have you in the palm of their hand.

Your husband stated that it was the "Communism" in the strike which caused him to break away. Yet I have information that he has quite a record for scabbing, in strikes where Communism was a thing unknown. I have reasoned over your letter and arrived at the conclusion that you never could have written it. I am sure you have not the ability. In fact, I will challenge you to write publicly with me, any place or time. Of course I know you will refuse the challenge on some pretext or other, or rather, I don't believe you are capable of accepting it. However, if you do, I am ready at any time.

Respectfully,
JULIA JOHNSON

The province of Alberta is enjoying the rather doubtful distinction this winter of having turkeys so cheap and so plentiful that, probably for the first time in history, turkey meat is on the regular meat course of the "two-bit" meals at city restaurants in the province. It has ceased to be a luxury. In fact, turkeys are a popular medium of barter for the farmers these days. The province reached the peak of its turkey production last season, and is firmly established in its position as the "turkey province of Canada."

DENIAL ISSUED BY C.N.R.

OFFICIALS OF NEWSPAPER REPORT ON LOSSES

Montreal, January 25.—Statement is made in a Montreal morning paper that the Canadian National has been losing at the rate of more than one million dollars a week on operation alone without any regard to interest charges. This statement is untrue. The Canadian National Railway System in 1932 met its operating expenses and had an operating net of upwards of ten million dollars, an improvement of more than two and half million dollars as compared with 1931.

On the Eastern Lines of the Canadian National, the results from which are presented separately, under the provisions of the Maritime Freight Rates Act, the operating deficit in 1932 was four million two hundred thousand dollars, an improvement of two million, two hundred thousand dollars as compared with 1931.

The New York Board of taxicab control announce that people in the metropolis paid $140,000,000 in taxicab fares in 1931, plus $20,000,000 in tips, while the record of 1932 was expected to drop to $115,000,000, with $15,000,000 in gratuities.

A most successful sale has been in progress at the store of Burnett & Cruickshank, Hillcrest, during the past week, and through a systematic advertising campaign, to wit: large bills turned out at the office of The Blaimore Enterprise, crowds of people from all parts of the district, as well as citizens of Hillcrest itself, have been attracted to the big bargain fest. We understand that bunter days are looked forward to this week end. Extra clerks have been engaged to look after the crowds of cash customers.

Canadian Radio Programmes.

The recently appointed Canadian Radio Commission, within whose jurisdiction has been placed control of all radio broadcasting in Canada, has inaugurated the first of its series of all-Canadian programmes to be broadcast over a Dominion-wide hook-up of stations from the Atlantic to the Pacific. This first series is to consist of twelve symphony concerts given alternately by the Toronto and Montreal Symphony orchestras each Tuesday evening. The Radio Commission has also announced a second series of broadcasts for each Friday evening consisting of concerts by the bands of the Royal Canadian Regiment, London, Ontario, and the Canadian Grenadier Guards, Montreal.

Before taking the step of nationalizing radio broadcasting in Canada, the Canadian Government appointed a Royal Commission to study the whole subject and to investigate conditions and systems in other countries. In Great Britain all broadcasting is under the direction and control of the British Broadcasting Company, which, in a sense, acts for the Government. In the United States private companies and individual stations are responsible for the programmes, which are financed by advertising, while the Government controls the erection of stations, their power, wave lengths, etc. Canada's Royal Commission reported in favor of out-and-out control by the Government through the creation of a national Radio Commission with wide powers of control over all stations and all programmes, including the right to take over existing stations, erect new ones, and operate any or all of them.

Canada's position is a peculiar one. Being immediately adjacent to the United States with its 110,000,000 people, enormous financial resources, and many powerful stations with large revenues from advertising, as compared with Canada's population of only 10,000,000, much smaller financial resources, and a restricted volume of radio advertising available, and largely confined to purely local areas, our stations are consequently smaller and of low power compared with the high-powered stations across the line. As a natural and inevitable result, United States programmes largely monopolized the air in Canada. It was realized that this situation could only be overcome if at all, by the Government itself. Hence the decision in favor of a national radio commission with all-embracing powers, and financed by the license fees paid by all citizens possessing receiving sets.

At the outset, the Radio Commission is not proceeding to acquire stations or erect new ones; rather it is devoting its attention to the development of worth-while Canadian programmes and providing the hook-up facilities whereby such programmes can be heard in every Province of the Dominion, an expensive proceeding because of our great extent of territory and our sparse population, and, therefore, beyond the capabilities of private enterprise.

There is little question but that the people of Canada desire that such all-Canadian programmes and national hook-ups should be provided. But to command the interest and support of our people such programmes must be equal to, and, where possible, excel, United States programmes. It is not only in the quality of the individual programmes that may be offered that they must successfully compete with United States programmes, but in their variety as well. The Radio Commission is making its start with symphony orchestra music. Well and good, and undoubtedly the two organizations selected to provide these programmes are just as fine as any United States organization. The fact remains that only a limited number of people possess an educated taste for symphonies. Possibly, everybody enjoys such a programme occasionally, but as a regular diet it is apt to pall. The same thing may be said with equal truth in regard to band concerts, and, indeed, of any one class of programmes.

We desire to emphasize that we are not criticizing, in even the mildest manner, the initial programme decisions of the Radio Commission, but we do desire to point out, and to emphasize, that in order to command the approval and support of the masses of the Canadian people—who, after all, are paying for these programmes and, therefore, have the right to "call the tune,"—Canadian programmes must equal in their variety those which can be heard every evening by tuning in on U.S. stations. People like good music whether by band, orchestra or vocal, but they also like a lot of fun. They enjoy a good joke, clever repartee, a real good laugh. At times they want to be excited and thrilled by an intense drama; they like to listen to an eloquent speaker upon timely topics. And there is grave danger that if the Canadian Radio Commission, in their laudable desire to raise the standard of radio programmes, adopt what we may term a "high brow" attitude, thousands of Canadian listeners will simply turn their dials and continue to listen-in, as now, upon the enormously popular variety programmes emanating from United States stations.

It is to be hoped that the members of the Radio Commission are as fully alive to this situation as is the average radio listener. It will of course, take time to develop such programmes, while it is a comparatively easy matter to conclude arrangements with symphony orchestra and regimental bands to inaugurate initial programmes. But in order that public opinion may not develop an open antagonism to the policy of nationalized broadcasting, it is vitally important that no false impression of the policies and intentions of the Radio Commission be created.

No doubt that the mass of our population who are extremely fond of the highest forms of music will write their commendations to the Commission. We would offer the suggestion that listeners-in everywhere join the army of correspondents, and, while not criticizing what they themselves do not particularly enjoy, present their own views as to what they would like included in these Canada-wide programmes and thus assist the Commission in developing programmes, not only of high merit, but of variety that will prove well pleasing to the Canadian people as a whole.

Debt Adjustment

Movement To Enact Law To Prevent Unjust Foreclosures

Representations will be made to the Saskatchewan Government, provincial-wide in scope, requesting that machinery be set up which will put the closure on unjust foreclosures after consideration has been given to all the merits in the case.

The governments will be asked to devise legislation which will protect all equities in property, no matter how great or small, as it is felt there is discrimination under the provisions of the proposed Debt Adjustment Act.

This discrimination, it is alleged, by the Saskatchewan Citizens Investment Protective Association, is that inter-dependent groups in mortgages and sales agreements are not protected, and in a large number of cases hardships have been wrought through foreclosures being achieved by first mortgage holders.

The abuses of first mortgage closure, where no consideration is given to the inter-dependent group in the property, is creating problems which have to be solved, and the solution of which can only be met by amendments to the present Debt Adjustment Act, it is contended by this Association.

HEADACHE AFTER HEADACHE

Now She's Free From Them

A woman writes:—"I would like everyone who suffers from headaches to try Kruschen Salts. Before taking Kruschen I was hardly ever free from a headache. But since I have been taking it regularly I have hardly had a headache, for which I am very thankful, for headaches can make one feel quite ill. I have been taking that small dose of Kruschen every morning in a glass of warm water, before my breakfast, and I feel so well."

(Mrs.) A. E. D. Headaches can generally be traced to a disordered stomach and to the unbalanced retention in the system of stagnating waste matter which poisons the blood. Remove these poisons—prevent them forming again—and you'll never have to worry any more. And that is just how Kruschen Salts bring swift and lasting relief from headaches. Kruschen Salts aid Nature to cleanse your body completely of all clogging waste matter. Start on "the little daily dose" of Kruschen tomorrow. Then you will very soon have done with headaches.

Court Room Etiquette

Delinquents Must Wear Collar and Tie Before Swiss Judges

There was an amusing scene at a Swiss Palais de Justice recently, when a number of persons charged with various offences came up for trial. The first was acquitted but the justices had him heavily because he was not wearing a collar. His lawyer stated that he had to send his client to get shaved before entering the court.

On hearing the fine announced a number of other delinquents rushed from the court to buy collared shirts. They all returned looking very relieved but unfortunately they had omitted to buy neckties. They were admonished by the justices, who said that in future anyone appearing in court in this fashion would be severely dealt with.

Will Not Eliminate War

Disarmament Will Only Modify Method Of Fighting

We have to face the fact that disarmament will not eliminate war. It will only modify the method by which it can be carried on. It started with fists and then went on to bows and arrows and swords and spears, and then some as discovered gunpowder, and so on. So we are, in reality, making for the bows and arrows age. It may be possible to arrive there some day, but how long shall we stay there; with all the resources of modern industrialism behind us, civil aircraft, railways, motor transport and the endless possibilities of science?—National Review.

On the Island Of Curacao

A Centre Of Interest For Travellers and World Tourists

"Bang, bang, bang!" goes the cue-gong on your white shirt; "bang, bang, bang!" goes the whacking all day long; it holds the charm of music to the tourist looking on—"tis the washerwoman's seaside song."

A report from Willemstad says it is really a wonder how the wash here stands the pounding it gets. If you want a shirt or two laundered while you spend the day here, you give the work to a woman who stands in the lagoon beside her clothes-line, which is nothing more than a few rocks or some cactus growths on the shore. In washing a shirt the washerwoman clubs it out; that is, she soaks it in the salt water, then places it on one of the rocks and belabours it with a stick worn smooth by contact with wet clothes on the flat rock surface. There being no streams in the Island of Curacao, all clothing is washed in the sea, which is crystal clear. There is nearly always a breeze here, as the clothing soon dries when it is spread out on rocks or bushes in the sun.

Many a button meets a violent death between the club and the stone; but buttons are found on sale everywhere in Willemstad.

The washerwoman dress as scantily as they do in Holland's other island of romance, Bali, which is now the centre of interest among world tourists. Most of the women wear nothing but a cloth about their waist and when this gets wet they just let it stay wet.

People who come here during January, February and March on the "Mauretanian" cruises will find that the washerwomen here do excellent work—should they find themselves in need of such services. They wash and iron underwear, handkerchiefs, shirts and the like in very short time. Linen must be left while passengers are on their way to look over the town and will be found ready to take away in an hour or less.

Willemstad is an ideal place to shop in. All Dutch products are extremely low-priced. There is a wide variety of goods from all parts of the world, the city being a free port. Especially cheap is the piquant Curacao, which is not made here, but derives its name from the island group on the west coast of which it is made. The cordial is manufactured in Holland. The jewelry stores are attractively stocked with works of the master craftsman in gold and silver. For some unknown reason the prices asked would barely pay for the time spent in manufacturing the articles, so that nothing of the value of the metal from which they are made.

Ostrich feathers may also be bought cheaply here. A farm in the outskirts of the city is devoted to the raising of the long-legged birds, and large quantities of the beautiful plumes they produce are sold in Willemstad.

Close Doors On Technocracy

Columbia University Lays Plans For Survey By Its Own Engineers

Columbia University has closed its doors on Technocracy, which plans for an energy and technology survey directed by its own engineers.

Four members of the Technocracy group, headed by Prof. Walter Rautenstrauch, of the Columbia industrial engineering department, announced they were "not in accord with some of the statements and attitudes" expressed by Howard Scott, the nominal leader, and therefore were "withdrawing from association with Technocracy."

"Technocracy desires to exist as far as we are concerned," Rautenstrauch declared.

"Scott will not work here any longer," he said, in reply to a question.

He also disclosed that the 100 or more unemployed engineers and architects who have been working on Technocracy's "energy survey of North America," while being paid from unemployment relief committee funds, will work in the future on the Columbia survey and not on any work Scott and the "Technocrats" may carry on.

Depletion and elimination of bile is the cause of depression, nervousness, and all the ailments that follow. ### Japanese Statesman Sees Trouble

Criticizes Militaristic Spirit Dominant In His Country

A spokesman for one of Japan's principal political parties declared in the diet at Tokyo, Japan, that unless relations between Japan and the United States are improved they will produce renewed armaments competition and possibly a world war.

This statement was made by Hitoshi Ashida, formally chosen spokesman for the Seiyukai party, who delivered the hottest criticism of the current military domination of Japanese diplomacy heard in parliament since the Manchurian conflict began in September, 1931.

In response to Mr. Ashida's assertion that "a gloomy situation" rules relations between Japan and the United States, the foreign minister, Count Yasuoka declared that "there is no uneasiness concerning our relations with the United States."

Rising in the diet to question the government concerning its foreign policy, Mr. Ashida questioned the desirability of the army's domination of diplomacy and asserted that the public was afraid that "we are being dragged blindly into an uncharted pitch-black abyss."

Looks Like Magic

Stock Disappears and Bailiff's Sale Was Called Off

A. S. Cromarty, farmer in Essex County, Ontario, can give Thurston some lessons in magic, according to Frank Howard and Charlie Eggleston, division court bailiffs. Cromarty made two horses and two cows disappear and the court officer cannot find them.

There was a good crowd gathered for the auction which was held to satisfy a judgment against the farmer but the stock was missing so the sale was called off. Officers spent hours following hoof prints to various parts of the 12-acre farm and to adjoining property but had to give up because Cromarty would not tell where he hid the animals.

Forty Nations Taking Part

Will Participate In Some Form In World Grain Show

At a meeting of the executive of the World Grain Show in Regina, Hon. W. C. Buckle, Saskatchewan Minister of Agriculture, announced that over 40 countries have decided to participate in some form or another in the exhibition and said that the educational "exhibit" space has been largely taken up. Good progress all along the line was revealed in reports of various committees. About 40 experts and scientists have accepted invitations to address the conference and lead discussions.

Proposal Has Merit

Arizona Senator Suggests U.S. Accept Silver Payment From Britain

There seems to be merit in the proposal of Senator Hayden, of Arizona, that the United States express readiness to accept from Great Britain on the British war debt, two hundred million ounces of silver, holding that such would aid silver mining in the British Empire and tend to raise the price of silver and give more or less comfort to India and China which are large users of silver currency. Indeed, in contrast to the inflation schemes of agitators who want large issues of paper money, the Hayden proposals are of undoubted merit. Silver has been a rival of gold for supremacy, and assuredly has value. There is a strong argument for bimetallism. —St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Looks After King's Stamps

Sir Edward Bacon Looks After Valuable Collection

Sir Edward Bacon, the new knight, who looks after the King's collection of stamps, has done so for many years. Like His Majesty, he is a stamp enthusiast. He has access to the stamp room at Buckingham Palace at all times, and the King spends many hours with him examining the collection, which is one of the most valuable in the world. Owing to the skilful manner in which the stamps have been purchased, the collection has cost the King comparatively little, although it comprises practically all the rare stamps of the world. Both the King and Sir Edward are experts with the microscope for stamp collecting purposes.

Prefer Own Music

Germany Is Getting Tired Of U.S. Dance Tunes

"Germany is sick of American dance hits, bands and singers, and the younger set now prefers to dance to German tunes, especially waltzes, played by German bands," the German Association for Exploitation of Musical Research production rights stated in its annual report.

Importation of dance music from the United States, the report says, has shrunk to almost nothing.

PREMIER SAYS RAIL PROBLEM IS SERIOUS ONE

Ottawa, Ont.—The railway problem in Canada is threatening the very economic life of the country, Premier R. B. Bennett told a deputation of railway men here. Like the fabled old man of the sea it was clinging to the back of Canada, slowly throttling its life.

No language would be too extravagant to describe the seriousness of Canada's railway problem, the Prime Minister said. It had been submitted by the railwaymen that too much emphasis had been placed on the financial end of the problem and not enough on the human.

"But if these enterprises stop altogether there will be no work at all," said Mr. Bennett. "Our effort is to maintain as going concerns these enterprises. That is our job, our responsibility."

"If this country continues as we have done in the past, we cannot continue long. We have only 10,000,000 people, scattered from sea to sea, and we must stop incurring fresh responsibilities or we cannot pay on the past (responsibilities). And if we cannot pay on our past responsibilities, we cannot borrow more."

Canada's economic life was at stake, proceeded the Prime Minister, "and if we lose our credit, we lose everything." The Duff royal commission advised paying of the Canadian National deficit each year, but the deficit in 1932 was $70,000,000, and this year it looks as if it might be well within it if I said $100,000,000 a week."

"This country," continued Mr. Bennett, "has only 10,000,000 people, and they and it exceedingly difficult to pay present taxes. We know there is a breaking point, and every day gets us closer to it in this time of depression."

It would be the responsibility of the government and the Canadian National Board of Trustees—recommended by the Duff commission—to maintain the railways as going concerns giving employment, said Mr. Bennett. "Sacrifices will have to be made. We may as well face that. But it will be a sacrifice, every one will have to suffer."

Every consideration would be given to the representations, said Mr. Bennett. Seated with the Prime Minister were Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice; Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways; Hon. Alfred Durnan, Minister of Fisheries; and Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance.

When it was suggested the bonded indebtedness of the Canadian National should be reduced, the Prime Minister said the bonds had been guaranteed by the government, "and cannot be written down. The interest must be paid if the credit of this country is to be upheld."

Would Limit Exports

Wheat Should Be Used For Feed For Livestock

Saskatoon, Sask.—Canada should limit exports of wheat by converting as much as possible of it into beef, bacon, and hams, poultry and eggs, and perhaps even butter and cheese, F. H. Auld, deputy minister of agriculture, suggested at the session of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Societies' Association. The agricultural societies should mould public opinion in this regard.

The possibilities of increased export of bacon should not be considered only with a view to whether production would be profitable but also with a view to the improvement of wheat prices by feeding surplus wheat to hogs and so relieving the pressure on the wheat market.

U.S. Farmers Fight Taxes

To Protect Property From Loss Through Tax Sales

Chicago.—Farmers of the agrarian states are fighting two of their ancient foes, mortgages and taxes, with a desperate determination this winter, and state legislatures are their battleground.

Their fight is waged with bills of a hundred different designs, but all weapons are aimed at the same target. By one method or another it is intended to protect the farmer from loss of his property through tax sales or mortgage foreclosures.

Nearly every legislature meeting this year has heard the farmers' voice in measures designed to give them respite from tax and interest burdens.

Outside legislative halls, farmers from Iowa to Pennsylvania have given proof of their earnestness, sometimes by forcibly halting tax and mortgage sales. In many states farm groups have voiced their feelings in language which has commanded legislative attention.

Relief sought through the state legislatures is chiefly concerned with reduction of the farmers' "fixed charges." In contrast with legislation to increase prices sought through the federal government.

Wheat Exports

About 80 Per Cent. Of 1932 Crop Is Now Marketed

Ottawa, Ont.—About 80 per cent. of the 1932 wheat crop has been marketed in the prairie provinces, and exports of Canadian wheat and wheat flour for the five months up to the end of December totalled 150,000,000 bushels, as compared with 107,000,000 bushels during the same period in 1931, according to the monthly review of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The review stressed the importance of exports of Canadian wheat to the United Kingdom during the present crop year. According to British trade returns, during the four-month period from August to November, 1932, total imports of wheat into the United Kingdom amounted to 68,000,000 bushels of which 38,000,000 bushels originated in Canada. The bureau estimated that during the corresponding months of 1931 not more than 20 per cent of British imports consisted of Canadian wheat.

Trying Times For Dairymen

Prices Of Dairy Products Lowest In Past Twenty Years

Saskatoon, Sask.—At a session of the Saskatchewan Dairy Association at the university, F. E. Reed, dairy commissioner for Saskatchewan, drew attention to the lowest prices during the past 20 years obtaining during 1932 for dairy products.

Mr. Reed said these were trying times for dairymen, but still there were some bright spots to be noted, such as improvement in the management of dairy farms, cattle, butter making, and butterfat production. There was an improvement in the quality of Saskatchewan butter during 1932, and though only 60 creameries operated, as compared to 63 the previous year, 278,828 pounds was the average per creamery compared to 297,681 in 1931.

The total value of dairy products in 1932 was $15,933,000 a decrease of more than $2,000,000 under the previous year. The 1932 output of creamery butter 17,806,985 pounds, a decrease of more than a million pounds from the figures of 1931.

Aid For Farmers

Opposes Plan To Put Inexperienced City Men On Farms

Penticton, British Columbia.—Governments should devote more energy to relieving distress of those already on farms and improve economic conditions by that method, rather than increase difficulties by adding oversupply of agricultural commodities by putting inexperienced city men on the land. This was the opinion expressed by R. H. Macdonald, president of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association, at the 43rd annual convention.

Insurance Legislation

Winnipeg, Man.—Designed to get around the recent decision of the privy council placing control of insurance companies in the hands of the provinces, legislation endorsing the division of jurisdiction over companies in Manitoba will be brought down by the Manitoba Government at the coming session of the legislature, it was learned here.

Community Life

Need For Development Stressed By Saskatoon Speaker

Saskatoon, Sask.—Emphasizing the need of a vital community life, particularly the cultural and social guidance of young people, in which the agricultural society should take the lead as a sort of community club, J. G. Rayner, director of agricultural extension at the University of Saskatchewan, gave his report as secretary at the annual convention of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Societies' Association here. He suggested new fields of endeavour for the societies in a time when, owing to lack of funds, the usual enterprises had to be abandoned.

Mr. Rayner's report pictured the decline in the activities of the agricultural societies, with a total membership reduced from 28,880 in the year 1930 to 5,300 in 1932, but stated that while any report connected with agriculture at this time would contain dismal passages, it had its bright spots also. Good work had been done despite all obstacles, Mr. Rayner declared.

Announce Refusal To Take Pay Reductions

Stand Taken By Railway Workers In England

London, Eng.—Employees of the major railway companies of England announced their refusal to accept wage reductions recommended by Sir Harold Morris, chairman of the National Wages Board.

The definite stand by the employees now leaves the companies with the necessity of carrying on with the former wage scale or the alternative of posting notices instituting the wage cuts. Attempts at compromise have failed.

CONVENTION OF C. C. F. WILL BE HELD IN REGINA

Calgary, Alberta.—First Dominion-wide convention of the newly-organized Co-operative Commonwealth Federation will be held in Regina early in July, with delegates of constituent units from coast to coast attending.

Announcement of the definite selection of the Saskatchewan capital as the first convention city was announced by Norman F. Priestly, vice-president of the United Farmers of Alberta and provisional secretary of the C.C.F. An executive meeting in Regina would precede the convention, he said, but the exact dates of the Dominion-wide gathering had not yet been set.

Provincial councils now being organized will be two-fold or three-fold in character, depending on the affiliations within the province. Mr. Priestly cited Ontario as an example, where the provincial council, when completed, probably will be composed of representatives of farmers, labor groups and other citizen groups, such as the C.C.F. clubs. The same policy was being followed in other provinces, where the councils were being formed.

Revisions of the constitution, adopted at the organization convention in Calgary last August, will receive consideration.

POLAND'S RADIO PROTEST

Here we see M. Skirmunt, Polish Ambassador in London, Eng., leaving the Embassy after presenting a note to the Foreign Office complaining of a use of a British radio station for "political propaganda against a friendly nation." Poland took exception to some remarks on Poland made during a commentary by the British Broadcasting Corporation preceding a relay of several European stations recently.

Liquor Advertisements

Want Permission To Publish Liquor Ads In Ontario Papers

Toronto, Ont.—Permission for publication of liquor advertisements in newspapers and magazines in Ontario was urged upon Premier G. S. Henry by a deputation of five of the Allied Printing Trades Council, in seeking employment for some 500 members of the council.

It was argued that several American publications that would have been published in Ontario were sent to Montreal for publication because liquor advertisements were used in them.

Anxious To Vote

Man In Ireland Cycles 100 Miles To Cast His Ballot

Dublin, Ireland.—Two centenarians were among the first to cast their vote in Donegal as the Irish Free State went to the polls. In Kenmare a husband, a wife, aged 101 and 99 years, respectively, voted their preferences.

A Galway man cycled 100 miles to cast his ballot, while an enthusiast in Killarney walked 40 miles to do his bit for his party.

To Be Deported

Intellectual Development

Dr. H. H. Tory Scores Any Movement Towards Closing Opportunity

Vancouver, B.C.—A challenge to those who would curb intellectual development of Canada was voiced by Dr. H. H. Tory, chairman of the National Research Council of Canada, in addressing the Canadian club here.

"The man who would curb the intellectual activities of the country is a traitor to the nations," declared Dr. Tory with emphasis.

"What are your great natural resources without men equipped with the intellectual approach?" he asked. "On the great prairies of Canada the white man produced more in one year than had been produced there in the ages. What are natural resources without the training to use them? Without that intellectual ability they may be a curse to the country which owns them. Scientific discoveries of comparatively recent years have given us employment to millions and opened up new activities."

Treasure Hunt

Syndicate Says Cocos Island Venture Is Not Abandoned

Vancouver, B.C.—All members of the Cocos Island-treasure party have left the island and are now located on the mainland of Costa Rica, officials of the syndicate announced recently. The evacuation was made necessary through defects developed aboard the contact boat "Vigilant."

In a statement issued by J. G. Turgeon, managing director, and Lt.-Col. J. S. Tait, a director, it was announced the venture would not be abandoned but that after consulting with shareholders it was planned to send another party to the island, thoroughly equipped to complete the work carried on during the past 11 months.

Plan Meets With Success

Prepayment Of Taxes Is Working Well In Ontario

Toronto, Ont.—Ontario's citizens, in these so-called days of depression, willingly lay their money on the line in taxes for the old home town. Survey of 15 cities, in which 11 have put into effect tax-prepayment plans, shows discount-on-advance-pay system is generally well received and operating successfully.

Among cities covered by the survey, Toronto, Sault Ste. Marie, Oshawa, Windsor, Ottawa, Chatham, Stratford, London, St. Catharines, Sarnia and Sudbury have adopted the prepayment scheme.

BRITAIN HAS AGREED TO U.S. DEBT DISCUSSION

London, Eng.—Great Britain, in formally agreeing to Anglo-American debt discussions by a note which Ambassador Sir Ronald Lindsay handed to Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, definitely limited the scope of any decisions which may be taken at Washington to questions concerning Great Britain's war debts to the United States.

Great Britain stated that she will be "glad to exchange views with Mr. Roosevelt on other world economic problems in which the two governments are interested," but decision "naturally cannot be reached," before the world monetary and economic conference.

In Whitehall this was interpreted as having a two-fold object. Britain does not desire to be drawn too deeply into any general discussions of world economic problems at Washington. Secondly, there is a desire to safeguard the aims and purposes of the world economic conference of which Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald was named chairman by the Geneva preparatory commission.

It is expected the world economic conference will assemble in London as soon as possible after the Washington debt discussion has been concluded. British observers expect this to be in May at the earliest.

Washington.—Great Britain accepted President-Elect Franklin D. Roosevelt's terms for a discussion of its war debt, but made a reservation against deciding what questions will be considered by the world economic conference until there is a general meeting of all nations to be represented there.

The British reply was delivered at the state department while a furious debate raged out in the senate which indicated that if there has been any yielding in the congressional opposition to cancellation or revision, it is still of small proportions.

ONLY ONE OF TEN DEPORTEES STILL IN CANADA

Halifax, N.S.—Only one of ten aliens ordered deported as Communists last May remains in custody at immigration detention quarters here. With the departure of Dan Holmes and Stefan Woroczycki, only John Sembay (Iwan Sembay) was left.

Holmes, whose real name is Dan Chomicki, and Woroczycki were sent out of the country aboard the liner "Pulaski," bound for Copenhagen and Gdynia. Holmes is an Austrian and Woroczycki a native of Poland. The fact that they had gone was not generally known; Lionel A. Ryan, barrister who represented the Canadian Labor Defence League in their interests, did not learn of it until recently.

Ryan said no appeal to the judicial committee of the Privy Council would be taken from the rulings of three Canadian courts. Federal Minister of Immigration to stay deportation proceedings had made such an appeal impractical, he said. It was now only an academic question.

The ten held here were: Arvo Vaara, editor of the Finnish Daily Vapaus, of Sudbury, Ont.; Martin Parker, his secretary; Hans Kist of Berlin; Conrad Cessinger, Bavarian; John Fracas, of Hungary; John Stahlberg, Montreal manager of Vaara's paper; Frederick Zuercher, Swiss; Sembay and the two who left on Monday, January 23.

Stahlberg was sent to the United States, where he was a naturalized citizen, and Vaara, Parker, Kist, Cessinger, and Fracas were deported late in December to their countries of origin. Zuercher was deported subsequently. It was understood at the time that Sembay, the one remaining alien, has made arrangements to be sent to the Soviet Union.

Labor Representation

All Canadian Congress Of Labor Interviews The Premier

Ottawa, Ont.—A sharp indictment of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and a request for equal recognition of labor organizations before the law and in the selection of Labor representatives for government bodies and commissions was presented to Premier R. B. Bennett and his cabinet by a delegation from the All-Canadian Congress of Labor.

The Trades and Labor Congress was pictured as a "quasi-political body," deriving its standing wholly from the support of United States-controlled unions and lacking in voluntary support from the workers of Canada. It had no right to pose as or be recognized as the official representative of organized labor in Canada.

In a two-hour interview with the cabinet, the delegation brought forward a score of charges against the rival labor organization. Premier Bennett thanked the delegation for its representations and promised consideration.

Prize Birds Dead

Bronchitis Attacks Poultry In Alberta. Egg-Laying Contest

Lethbridge, Alberta.—Sixty-two birds from the finest poultry flocks in Alberta had died as result of an epidemic which broke out at the Lethbridge experimental farm, where they were entered in an egg-laying contest.

Recognizing the seriousness of the situation, the contest management issued a statement in which it said an epidemic of infectious bronchitis broke out among the birds on January 17.

Quebec, Que.—Because he cut off his right index finger and then claimed compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, Joseph Dupuis, St. Adèle De Pabon, Quebec, was sentenced to four months imprisonment with hard labor. He was arraigned on a double charge of seeking to obtain money from the Workmen's Compensation Commission under false pretences and of committing perjury.

Safer Than Highway

Coteville, Pa.—For years, Giovanni Dipauli, 65, a crossing watchman, walked to work on the railroad, right-of-way. A month ago the watch agent ordered him to take a safer course. A few days ago a truck roared down the Lincoln Highway and killed him.

We regret very much hurting the feelings of Joe Fitzpatrick through a item in our last issue, which only carried further the suggestions announced on bulletins posted at Blaimore, Bellevue and Hillcrest. Joe takes exception to being classed as a Communist, and some of his friends wish to have it understood that neither he nor Bill Knight are connected with that body. Well, the average person feels that Knight is not a member of, nor has at heart sympathy with the "Red" element of the Crows' Nest Pass.

IN MEMORIAM

HADWELL—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Arthur Hadwell, who departed this life on February the 6th, 1932.

"My dearest son, what would I give, Your dear face to see;
That meant so much to me,
They try to cheer me up at times,
And tell me not to fret,
God alone knows my loneliness—
Somehow, I can't forget."

—Ever remembered by his loving mother and brother.
